Mayor William D. Euille and Members of the Alexandria City Council and The Friends of the Freedmen's Cemetery cordially invite you to attend

A Re-Dedication of the Alexandria Freedmen's Cemetery

Saturday, May 12, 2007 6:00 - 8:00 p.m. 1001 South Washington & Church Streets

This event re-dedicates and honors the forgotten burial place of approximately 1,800 freedmen, who escaped the bonds of slavery, sought refuge in Alexandria, and contributed to the prosperity and cultural heritage of the City.

The event is free. For additional information call (703) 883-4686.

Freedmen's Cemetery Website: http://www.freedmenscemetery.org

Rain date: Saturday, May 19, 2007

The City of Alexandria complies with the American with Disabilities Act for qualified individuals. If reasonable accommodation is needed, please call 703-838-4844, TTY 838-4902 by April 30. Parking with shuttle service available at Saint Mary's School, corner of South Royal and Green Streets. (SEE MAP ON REVERSE)

By Metrorail:

Guests traveling by Metrorail should exit at the Braddock Road Metro station; board the #10 B Metro Bus (Hunting Towers); exit bus at the S. Washington/Gibbon Streets bus stop; and walk three (3) blocks to the ceremony.

